

Introduction to communication skills course programme

This is an in-person course

Speakers Dr Samantha Bell – MDU medico-legal adviser
 Dr Martin Brunet – GP partner and trainer
 Dr Jenna Fowler – MDU medico-legal adviser
 James Godber – MDU senior learning and development officer

Course content

09:00 Welcome/refreshments

09:15 Introductions and learning objectives

09:40 What goes wrong? Delegates share their experiences of communication issues they have experienced or seen in practice.

10:20 Medico-legal issues (Dr Samantha Bell and Dr Jenna Fowler)

- Multiple jeopardy – looking at how a single clinical incident can arise and result in many subsequent pathways.
- When communication goes wrong – focusing on complaints and how to respond.
- How can I respond if there is a complaint? How to frame a written response (includes groupwork exercise).

11:00 Break

11:15 The Two Houses model of managing communication in practice. Exploring 'pinch points' in communication – areas where communication with the patient can go off-track and how to survive them. (Dr Martin Brunet – part one)

12:30 Lunch

13:15 The Two Houses model of managing communication in practice. (Dr Martin Brunet – part two)

14:15 Break

14:30 How personality can impact communication. Examining a model that looks at Jungian archetype personality styles to see how communication differs for different personality and communication styles. (James Godber)

15:20 Wrap up and questions

15:30 Finish