

MDU

Preparing for your first consultant role Course programme

In association with M J Roddis Associates Limited

- Speakers Dr Mike Roddis – Director, M J Roddis Associates Ltd
 Dr Emma Doherty – MDU medico-legal adviser
- 09:00 Registration and refreshments
- 09:30 Outline of the day, sharing expectations: what we hope to achieve
- 10:00 What makes a good consultant
- Technical, professional and people skills
 - Group work
- 10:30 Culture shocks 1
- What do consultants actually do?
 - Line management of senior doctors
 - The role of the clinical director and medical director
- 11:15 Break
- 11:30 Culture shocks 2
- Job planning and appraisal
 - Revalidation and relicensing
- 12:30 Understanding the quality of your practice
- Presentation by a doctor from the MDU medico-legal team
 - Risk management and dealing with clinical incidents, complaints and claims
- 13:30 Lunch
- 14:00 Team work
- The romance of teams
 - True teams and false teams
 - How does leading a team differ from working in a team?
 - Group work
- 14:45 Break

MDU

15:00 Leadership

- Differentiating leadership from management
- Leadership style
- Dealing with NHS meetings

15:45 Round up and feedback

- Learning from the day – meeting of original objectives
- Action points – future learning plan

16:30 Close